

is the Chairman of Yonkers Contracting Company, Inc., a prominent heavy civil contractor founded by his father, Edward J. Petrillo, in 1945. The company specializes in infrastructure construction for both public and private clients. Carl began his career at Yonkers Contracting as an assistant superintendent and eventually became the President and CEO. Under his 40-year leadership, the company grew into one of the most respected firms in the tri-state area, diversifying into all areas of heavy civil construction, including paving, highways, bridges, rail, transit, water/wastewater, and energy/environmental projects. Notably, Yonkers Contracting was recently awarded a $517M Design-Build project by the New York State Department of Transportation for the replacement of two Bronx River Parkway Viaducts.

Since 1965, Carl's dedication to the construction industry, charitable societies, higher education, and numerous other causes has earned him significant recognition. He served on the Board of Trustees of Lehigh University for 14 years and currently holds the position of Vice Chair at Saint Joseph's Medical Center and Yonkers Partners in Education. Saint Joseph's is a comprehensive community healthcare system encompassing primary and behavioral health for in-patient and out-patient services. Yonkers Partners in Education (YPIE) is a nonprofit (501(c)(3)) organization. Carl is a graduate of Lehigh University's School of Business Administration.

His accolades include being honored by Yonkers Partners in Education on their 2022, receiving the Service to Humanity Award from the Greater New York March of Dimes, Humanitarian Award from the Westchester Chapter of the Boy's Town of Italy. Carl has also been recognized by the National Conference of Christians and Jews for Distinguished Achievement in the Advancement of Human Relations and received the Leadership Award from the Association of Westchester and Putnam Counties.

Both Carl and Yonkers Contracting Company are active members of the Westchester County Chamber of Commerce. Carl is a graduate of Lehigh University's School of Business Administration.
